Dear Brother,

It's been a while since I've heard from you. Where have you been? Hope you are doing well. I am also fine here. Today I am writing this letter because I want you and all the members of our family to be a part of HeForShe Campaign. This campaign is first of its kind at the United Nations. In this men and boys join hands with UN to stop gender discrimination against women and men.

Gender inequality is an issue that affects all the people. Even in progressive societies and top organisations, we can see gender bias. Gender equality can only be achieved when both men and female are treated similarly individually. Discrimination is a social stigma that creates division in the society.

Inequality based on gender is a concern that is a concern in the entire world. Even in the 21st century, across globe men and women do not enjoy equal privileges. Gender Equality is giving equal opportunities to both men and women in political, economic, education and health aspects. We see even today countries of Middle East do not have proper schools for boys and girls.

Gender equality is a human right, but our world faces a persistent gap in access to opportunities and decision-making power for women and men. Society should see in this way that empowered women and girls contribute in progress of the society as well as the nation and a better place to live. Education is key to success, many countries have seen a increase in girl student but this has to change a lot in developing and under developed countries of the world. This is process by which men and women are not treated equally.

⑤
This campaign is great thing which UN has started.
Brother you all with others should become a part of this campaign which is trying its best to end gender inequality in world. This campaign will help many people across the global to make this place a better place to live.

Tell them take care of yourself

With Love.
